

National Recognition

Purpose

To ensure that Advanced Training institute will recognise the AQF and VET qualifications and VET statements of attainment issued by any other RTO. Learners are supported by identifying required volume of learning to attain a qualification.

Scope

This policy applies to the Advanced Training's full scope of operations against training and delivery as RTO.

Policy

Advanced Training institute is committed to ensure that AQF and VET Qualifications and VET statements of attainment issued by any other RTO are recognised.

Procedure

- Information to be included in the Student handbook to assure students that any qualifications or statements of attainment gained from another RTO will be recognised
- Information in the Staff handbook to ensure trainers and assessors understand that ATI will recognise qualifications and statements of attainment

Definitions/ Acronyms

AQF	Australian Qualifications Framework www.aqf.edu.au
NRT	Nationally Recognised Training
National Recognition	Recognition by an RTO of the AQF qualifications and statements of attainment issued by all other RTOs, thereby enabling national recognition of the qualifications and statements of attainment issued to any person. Recognition by each state and territory's registering body of the training organisations registered by any other state or territory's registering body and of its registration decisions. Recognition by all state and territory course-accrediting bodies and registering bodies of each other's accredited courses and accreditation decisions.

Standards for Registered Training Organisations 2015

3.5.	The RTO accepts and provides credit to learners for units of competency and/or modules (unless licensing or regulatory requirements prevent this) where these are evidenced by: a) A QF certification documentation issued by any other RTO or A QF authorised issuing organisation; or b) Authenticated VET transcripts issued by the Registrar.
